The first quarter ends this week but all grades in teacher ease will not be final until next Monday. I will print paper report cards next week from teacher ease and send home for your review and signature.

This week the upper grade students are trying to raise money for a dance they want to host around Christmas time. Here is a list of the events and cost:

If you go to the spelling city link on the 2nd grade page of the St. Bruno website your child can practice spelling words, vocabulary words for both Franklin Books, and vocabulary words for the Social Studies test on Friday. For vocabulary practice good to games and choose vocabulary games.
