Teacher's Desk:

This week Mass will be on Monday morning at 8:30 am. We will also pray the rosary at 1pm Monday afternoon.

Thanks to all of those who helped with Santa's Cottage! It was a huge success.

This week Monday- Wednesday will be NORMAL school days. The quarter ended on Friday but I will be taking a few more grades this week. Several students have not recited all of the prayers and we didn't get through Chapter 9 to have the religion test last week.

The classroom Christmas party will be after lunch on Thursday. We will walk with 3rd grade to a few businesses in town and carol around 10am. This is a change as I originally sent out information stating we would have our party in the morning. If you would like to join us for caroling we'd love to have more adults. Please join us! If you are planning on attending the Christmas party, it will start around 1pm. Of course, if you'd like to attend both, GREAT! Join us for the whole day.

Looking Ahead:

January 30-February 5 Catholic Schools Week

February 8: Mandatory parent meeting for those students who will be receiving the sacraments of Penance and Reconciliation and 1st Communion this year. If you are not Catholic you do not need to attend.

March 15: 1st Reconciliation 6:30pm at St. Bruno.

April 21: Retreat Day and 1st Communion practice.

May 6: 11:30 special 1st Communion Mass at St. Bruno.

This week: In the Classroom

Reading: We will finish Dear Juno this week. Students will switch books and read either A Young Jackie Robinson or Harry Hates Shopping. Students reading about Jackie Robinson will take a test on Wednesday and those reading Harry Hates Shopping will write a book report.

Math: We are a little behind in math due to Christmas program practice this week students will subtract 0 and 1, and distinguish between congruent and similar shapes and designs.

Social Studies: We will finish our chart by adding information about the Inuit and Northwest tribes. We will talk about totems this week.

Science: We will discuss magnetism and electricity in January.

Religion: There will be a test over chapter 9 this week on Wednesday. Students should have recited all the prayers for this quarter by Wednesday, this includes the 10 Commandments.

Spelling: We will not have a spelling list this week.

Extra: No homework after Monday this week. Monday's homework: read new book!

Merry Christmas!!!!
