

Mrs. Wynn's Classroom Newsletter

Teacher's Desk:

Thank you to all of you for the cards, flowers, well wishes and prayers. We will try to get things back to normal this week. I apologize for any inconvenience my absence caused last week. I was also without a phone and didn't have a way to easily contact anyone.

Mass will be on Wednesday at 8:30am. Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and students will receive ashes on their foreheads during Mass.

Next week Mass will be on Friday. This will be Father Brian's last Mass. I will be attending the regional team quest meet on this day, in Mrs. Klingenburge's place, so that she can be at Mass to lead the students in a special dance.

If you are a member of Sacred Heart parish, I have to apologize for giving you incorrect information. Father Nick wants your children to receive both sacraments at Sacred Heart. This means you do not need to attend 1st Reconciliation at St. Bruno on March 15. Your children are still welcome at the retreat day and 1st Communion Mass at St. Bruno.

Looking Ahead:

March 15: 1st Reconciliation 6:30pm at St. Bruno.

April 21: Retreat Day and 1st Communion practice.

May 6: 11:30 special 1st Communion Mass at St. Bruno.

May 7: Last day of school!!!!

God Bless,

Mrs. Wynn

This week: In the Classroom

Reading: We will finish Keep It Simple, this week as a whole group. We will begin another nonfiction book, Animal Look Alikes. We will learn how to use non-fiction text features, students will practice creating and labeling diagrams. We will also use charts and diagrams to find information.

Math: We will work on lessons 95-98 this week. I don't think the students were given the lesson 95 tests on Friday. I will give tests on Tuesday.

Social Studies: As we continue our Black History unit we will learn and discuss people and events during the civil rights movement. We will read about Rosa Parks and Ruby Bridges. We will finish Black History on Friday.

Science: We will begin a unit on body systems next week.

Religion: We will read and discuss chapter 17 We Celebrate the Liturgy of the Word. There will be no test this week.

Spelling: The spelling patterns this week are r-controlled vowels, ir, ar, or, ur. Since there was no school on Monday we will not have ABC order for homework this week. There will be a test on Friday. The words can be found on spelling city for extra practice.
