

Mrs. Wynn's Classroom Newsletter

Teacher's Desk:

Congratulations to Calvin for placing 2nd in the talent show on Friday! Catholic Schools Week is over, it's back to business as usual this week. I will be gone Monday all day and Tuesday afternoon. Due to my absence I will not be tutoring after school on Tuesday this week.

As the weather is turning colder please remember to dress your child for playing outside, everyday. Layers are also a good idea, as the classroom is a balmy 98 degrees by the end of the day. Children are bad about dropping or forgetting hats, gloves, scarfs, etc. it is a good idea to write initials on them somewhere.

Many students are in need of pencils and other school supplies please check with your child to see if he/she is in need of anything.

If your child was baptized somewhere other than St. Bruno you will need to send a copy of his/her baptismal certificate to the school. Families who are members of other parishes generally receive the sacrament of Eucharist at there home parish. Often students wish to be pictured with and celebrate the sacrament with there class as well. This is okay but please notify me if your child will be attending at St. Bruno as well.

Looking Ahead:

February 8: Mandatory parent meeting for those students who will be receiving the sacraments of Penance and Reconciliation and 1st Communion this year. If you are not Catholic you do not need to attend.

March 15: 1st Reconciliation 6:30pm at St. Bruno.

April 21: Retreat Day and 1st Communion practice.

May 6: 11:30 special 1st Communion Mass at St. Bruno.

May 7: Last day of school!!!!

God Bless,

Mrs. Wynn

This week: In the Classroom

Reading: We will read Ants at Work, this week as a whole group. Students will bring home three new reading group books Monday. Please read a book nightly. It is obvious some students are not reading nightly. When they do not read they are not prepared for class the next day.

Math: We will work on lessons 86-90 this week. There will be math tests on Friday this week. We are practicing -5 facts this week.

Social Studies: We will begin our black history unit with slavery. We will discuss the origins of slavery in America and learn about Harriet Tubman and the underground railroad this week.

Science: We will begin a unit on body systems in March.

Religion: We will finish chapter 16 this week. There will be a test on Friday.

Spelling: The spelling patterns this week are short i spelled cvc, long i spelled cvce, vcc, and cv. There will be a test on Friday. The words can be found on spelling city for extra practice.
