Mrs. Wynn's Classroom Newsletter

Teacher's Desk:

Test folders are coming home today. Some of us haven't been putting forth our best effort and it is showing. The reading test on parts of a book did not copy the first page well, I recalculated grades minus this page. We will revisit this test in a couple of weeks. The material in that test we discuss every morning. If you have concerns about this test please wait and see how things go the next time we take it.

This week is testing week. Please make sure your child is to school on time. If your child eats breakfast here please arrive early enough for that. We can't change the bus times, if your child rides a bus that arrives later and needs to eat breakfast he/ she will be allowed to. I can't stress enough how important it is that children get enough sleep. Many studies show that learning and test performance are effected by inadaquite sleep. I will bring in fresh fruit and vegetables this week and we will take frequent breaks. Last year St. Bruno's second grade students scored the highest in the diocese on the IOWA tests. Let's make it a trend.

Please return addresses for our flat people by Monday. Anyone interested in or available to walk with us to the post office on Thursday please come. I am trying to arrange a walk through of the interior of the post office but we may just be mailing our letters and returning to school.

Have a great weekend!

This week: In the Classroom

Reading: Writing and addressing "flat" letters and mailing them. We will read independently this week. Students may bring home a Franklin book or a book with a Halloween theme.

Math: All math this week will be on the IOWA test.

Social Studies: We may do some activities with wheat it the afternoons if we have time.

Science: No science until October.

Religion: We will preview chapter 3 and begin next week.

Spelling: No spelling this week. Hopefully after testing our materials will be here for the new spelling books.
