News Letter

April 24-28, 2017

Dear Parents,

Three weeks left! They will be busy ones! The students are counting the days! Thursday is our field trip to Rend Lake, Custard Stand, Sesser Park, and the Visitor's Center. Students will need money for the Custard Stand.

Reading: "The Rooster Who Understood Japanese" Students are to read the story at home to an adult. We will read and discuss the story in class. Workbook pages will be assigned to enhance vocabulary and comprehension. The final test will be on Friday.

Math: Lessons: 9.1-9.3 Fractions. We will also be working on 8's in multiplication. The quiz for the 8's is on Friday.

Spelling: isn't, I'll, can't, won't, we'll, she's, we're, there's, haven't, that's, couldn't, aren't, they'll, weren't, it's. Challenge: beneath, determined, immediately, intelligent, startled. The test is Friday

Handwriting: handouts and spelling words also names in cursive

English: Adverbs

Religion: Chapter 23: The Church Respects All People

Science: Surface tension.

Social Studies: The third 10 "States and Capitals and their locations" will be tested on Tuesday. Map study will continue on Wednesday. New states and capitals will be given on Wednesday.

I am at school until 4:00 most days, and I arrive at 7:30. The school's number is 357-8276 and my email is charlotte.pestka@stbrunoschool.com.
